Dearest Supporter,

I understand that some of you do not wish to purchase your order via PayPal. So I designed this simple form so you may purchase your chocolates via check or credit card. I personally receive these orders – no one else – and do everything to keep all of your information completely private.

I will email you a receipt and confirmation of shipment as soon as your check has cleared or your credit card has been processed. Please make sure to double-check your information to assure that you receive your love-filled chocolates quickly!

Yours in Health,

Vanessa aka Chocolate Girl

POLICIES

When placing an order with Gnosis Chocolate, you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions.

Shipping Information

Please include as much address information as possible when shipping products especially to commercial addresses. Suite, floor, and room numbers are necessary to get your product to you.

*Note: If all address information is not provided and USPS is unable to deliver, we reserve the right to charge reshipping fees to you.

Timely Delivery

Gnosis Chocolate makes every attempt to send your order the same or next day however during certain times of the year, this may not be possible. In summer, orders are shipped on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday.

We will do our best, but do not guarantee delivery on any exact day. If you are looking at a particular delivery date please notate this in the comment section or better yet order early to have package arrive ahead of time.

For orders over 50 bars of one flavor, please give us 5 days notice as we make all of our chocolates fresh.

Shipping Cost

Shipping costs are based on the time of year. For spring and summer, shipping and handling costs may increase slightly. During the fall and winter months, this cost will be reduced. We'll do our best to keep prices down.

Shipping Materials

We avoid the use of styrofoam by using reusable ThermaFreeze ice packs. All of the other packaging is reused (aka reLoved) from orders we have received. Please help us make this an Earth-Friendly endeavor by reusing as much material as possible, and recycling the rest. Thank you!

Damages

We make every effort to ensure that your chocolate will arrive undamaged and do insure our packages. If your chocolate arrives softer than desired, simply place it in the freezer for 10 minutes and it will be just as delicious as ever. There is no need to keep them refrigerated until the customer opens the bar and chooses their desired consistency.

Returns and Refunds

We cannot accept any returns and cannot offer refunds after your order has been shipped. If you are unsatisfied with your order for any reason, please contact us right away and we will make sure to give you the best customer service ever and will ensure you are satisfied!
